The Synod of Virginia. FIFTH AND LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS-THE QUESTION OF ELDERSHIP.

(Reported for the Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, November 3, 1883.

The Synod met at 9:30 A. M., and was opened with devotional exercises. A legal point was raised upon the interpretation of a will. Governor Marye and Rev. R. R. Howison spoke on the question, which was decided according to Governor Marye's views.

Marye's views.

The question of the eldership was then taken up and discussed by Judge W. F. C. Gregory, of Richmond; Rev. W. A. Campbeil, Rev. Dr. Armstrong, Rev. Dr. Lefevere, and finally, Rev. Dr. Peck.

Synod became very restless upon voting on motions to take the vote and to post-

The question was narrowed by many to the question whether it is permitted an elder to preside over the deliberative bodies of the Church. The question is much broader than this, which really has little to do with this question. The ques-tion was finally decided in the affirmative by a vote recorded—ayes, 62; nocs, 38— about half of the delegates having gone home.

At 1:30 P. M., the reading of memorials of deceased ministers being in order, Rev. R. C. Walker offered the memorial of Rev. A. H. Price, who died in Savannah, Ga., November 3, 1882. The memorial of Rev. Dr. S. B. Jones, of Maryland, who died March 19, 1883, was read by Rev. Dr. A. C. Hopkins. The memorial of Rev. Dr. J. M. P. Atkinson, late president of Hampden-Sidney College, was offered by Rev. B. M. Smith, D. D.

M. Smith. D. D.

The afternoon session was principally consumed in a discussion of the report of Rev. Dr. Hall on instruction of colored people, the employment of an exangelist being recommended. Resolutions adopted.

Dr. Hopkins's report on home missions, with its recommendation of a day for sperial prayer in November for an increase of ministerial candudates, was adopted.

A recess until 7:30 P. M. was then taken, when Synod and a large congregation heard a sermon from Rev. Dr. Lefevere; This is the fullest meeting of Synod ever held, the next largest having been the one held in Richmond twelve years ago, at which there were 200 delegates. Here 201 were in attendance.

The Wytheville Enterprise says: Our space is small, and we regret it, because we cannot publish the numerous cards of good old Democrats in every county around us who are coming back to the fold.

The Shenandoah Valley says: We learn that the same day Mr. Hugh B. Eaton killed the loons mentioned in our last issue that Abraham Prophet also killed eight loons in Manor's mill-dam, near this place, and William Zirkle, son of John P. Zirkle, hilled one. There were fifteen in the co-vey—an unusually large number. The gentleman who informed us said he didn't know whether Mr. Prophet killed the eight one in eight shots or not, but he reck oned he did, as he is a good marksman.

The Lynchburg News says: On Saturday night about 11 o'clock two incendiary a tempts were made by the unknown to fire frame dwelling-houses. Both houses were occupied by colored families—one on the corner of Taylor and Tenth streets and the other on Ninth street between Monroe and Taylor. The second fire was discovered only a few minutes after the first. The houses were set on fire on the outside, and very little damage was done before the flames were extinguished. Origin—the devil, paper, and kerosene.

The Empress of Germany has sent to Mrs. Anna Ottendorfer, of New York, in recognition of her charities, a silver decoration bearing the monogram of the Empress and the royal crown of Prussia. An autograph letter from the Empress accom-panies the decoration.

A suspicious-looking box containing clock-work machinery, found floating in the dock at Halifax Saturday near one of her Majesty's war-ships, created intense excitement. The Admiral was summoned in baste to open the box. Two idle apprentices quieted the alarm by confessing they had devised the machine as a joke.

Admiral Courbet has already commenced the actual occupation of Tonquin. On October 18th Colonel Badens, with twenty men from the gunboats Blureer and Leopard, esptured the citadel of Nigne Bigne. On the 21st he captured the citadel of Phungi, three miles inland. No opposition was encountered. At Canton all is tranquil. People now visit the city without tear. Missionaries are returning to their fear. Missionaries are returning to their posts inland.

RICHMOND AND HENRICO TURNPIKE,

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1883,

at 10 o'ctock A. M., without regard to weather, the FARM whereof the decedent died scized. It contains 354 65-100 ACRES, and is only four miles from the city by three roads, two of them being turnpikes.

The improvements consist of a DWELLING with thriteen rooms, and a CONSERVATORY, besulffully situated in a large lawn with several hundred fine shade-trees, with flowers and vegetable gardens adjoining, handsomely laid off and embellished with box-borders, gravel-walks, &c., also, a KITCHEN with four rooms, DAIRY, OFFICE with three rooms, QUARTERS for hands, LARGE BARNS, HAY-HOUSES, and every out-building which could be desired, and all in complete order, Also, FINE APPLE- and PEACH-ORCHARDS, with other fruits and vine-yards in abundance.

in complete order, Also, FINE APPLE- and PEACH-ORCHARDS, with other fruits and vineyards in abundance.

While the land was naturally good, yet for the last twenty-four years no skill or expenditure has been spared in the improvement of this farm, and to-day it is undoubtedly under a higher state of fertility than any other farm of its size in this section. Much of the land produced four tons of fertility than any other farm of its size in this section, and the land produced four tons of hay per acre this year. A part of it has been used for trucking purposes for a number of vears, and several thousand dollars per annum has ocen realized in that way, bestdes fine returns from large crops of wheat, hay, oats, and corn.

No description will convey an adequate idea of the great beauty and high state of cutilivation of "MONTROSE." It must be seen. To any one who would wish to combine the inducements afforded by the sweet retirement of a country home near the city with perfect healthfulness, surrounded by every comfort and convenience, and withal the possession of a farm which will pay a handsome revenue upon the investment, this is a chance rarely offered in a life-time.

A map of the property may be seen at the office of the auctioneers.
